Privacy Policy

Introduction

This page sets out the privacy policy of Askey Computer Corporation ("We", "Us", "Our" or "Askey") and explains how Askey uses Your personal data (meaning any information about You which is personally identifiable (such as Your name, email address, video and audio signals and data)) ("Personal Data").

By providing your Personal Data to us, You acknowledge Your acceptance of the provisions in Our privacy policy. Any changes to Our privacy policy will be made on this page. By continuing to use our Website or the App after the posting of such changes, You will be deemed to have accepted any such changes.

What personal data do We collect about You?

We are committed to protecting the privacy of any personal data that You may submit to Our website or the APP. There may be times when We require personal data about You or when You wish to disclose such personal data to Us. Such personal data is obtained only when voluntarily submitted by You and is subject to the provisions set out on this page.

We may collect and process the following personal data about You, including but not limited to:

- data that You provide by filling in forms on Our website or the APP. This includes data provided at the time of registering to use the registration-only sections of Our website or the APP;
- We may also ask You for personal data (e.g. when You report a problem with Our website or the APP);
- If You contact us, in writing, by email or other electronic means, We may keep a record of that correspondence.

Passwords and Security

We take reasonable security measures to protect the information that you submit and view through Our website or App. Please note that no App is 100% secure, and you should implement certain measures (e.g., password protection) to assist in the protection of the personal information you upload and store on your device. If You choose, or You are provided with, a user identification code, password or any other piece of information as part of Our security procedures, You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of Your password and user name for Our website or the APP and You are responsible for all activities that are carried out under them. We do not have the means to check the identities of people using Our website or the APP and We will not be liable if and when Your password or user name is used by someone else.

We have the right to disable any user identification code or password, whether chosen by You or allocated by Us, at any time, if in Our opinion, You have failed to comply with any of the provisions of the present terms or the Terms and Conditions of use of the APP .

How will We use Your Personal data?

We are collecting personal data about You via Our website or the APP to

- download relevant brand content, when You choose to do so;
- ensure that content from Our website or the APP is presented in the most effective manner for You and for Your computer;
- provide You with information that You request from Us or which We feel may interest You, where You have consented to be contacted for such purposes; and
- notify You about changes to Our website or the APP and branding which may be relevant to You.

If You do not want Us to use Your personal data in this way, please contact Us via Our website or the APP

Will We share Your personal data with third parties?

We may share Your personal information with third parties for the purposes of operating our business, delivering, improving, and customizing our solutions, sending marketing and other communications related to our business, and for other legitimate purposes permitted by applicable laws or otherwise with your consent.
